

Python Functions

A function is a reusable block of code.

Example:

```
def greet(name):
    return "Hello " + name
```

```
message = greet("Ali")
print(message)
```

Functions help organize and reuse code.